

General supranational level, innovative, constructive and functional-existing structures, from forecast, system-planned comprehensive economic development, material and technical, system-planned provision, system-planned financing, private, public and joint interstate national production in the national economy of the countries, including in the planetary united world union of the interstate property complex (MIKRUS SYSTEM)

